Hi, My name is Chance. My mom could no longer take care of me because she lost her job. I am a purebred 8 month old Lab. I know how to Sit, lay down, shake, stay and high-five. I am house broken and crate trained. I am a VERY hyper boy and I love to run, play and Swim. I am Super Sweet and extremely smart. My mom left me my toys. The rope is my absolute FAVORITE. I will admit I like cats a little too much. I have never gotten to play with another dog. I'm really Sad I have to leave my mommy because I loved her so much, but she said it's best for me.
